March 25, 2021

President Joe Biden
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We are writing to you today to draw your attention to one of the greatest humanitarian disasters and crimes against humanity of the 20th century: the Bengali Hindu Genocide. This year, on March 25, 2021, we will mark the 50th anniversary of the beginning of the genocide. On that night, the West Pakistan military launched 'Operation Searchlight' in the capital city Dhaka, unleashing a campaign of targeted killings and massacres against the Bengali Hindu population, leaving thousands dead overnight.

In the ensuing months, historians estimate that 2-3 million people, primarily Bengali Hindus but also Bengali Muslim intellectuals and secular nationalists, were killed. About 200,000-400,000 women were raped and over 10 million people were displaced throughout the region, mostly in neighboring India. At the time, the U.S. and the world were aware of the atrocities being carried out. In a telegram titled "Selective Genocide" to the U.S. State Department, American Consul General Archer K. Blood wrote "Here in Dacca we are mute and horrified witnesses to a reign of terror by the Pak military. Moreover, with support of Pak military, non-Bengali Muslims are systematically attacking poor people's quarters and murdering Bengalis and Hindus. Full horror of Pak military atrocities will come to light sooner or later."¹

After fifty years, the time has come to affirm this horrific event which remains one of the greatest unrecognized crimes against humanity of the 20th century. Therefore, we urge you to issue a public statement commemorating March 25th as Bengali Hindu Genocide Remembrance Day.

In so doing, your words will help bring a semblance of justice to millions of victims and their survivors around the world, including tens of thousands residing in the U.S.

Sincerely,

¹ Blood, Archer K., U.S. Consulate General of East Pakistan, U.S. State Department Cable 0959, March 28, 1971; U.S. National Security Archives, accessed March 3, 2021. Available: <https://nsarchive2.gwu.edu/NSAEBB/NSAEBB79/BEBB1.pdf>
